

The Sacramento Valley:

- Produces 60% or 22 million acre feet of the water flowing into the Delta
- Offers major habitat/spawning ground for many threatened and endangered fish species
- Contributes significantly to the state's farmlands and agricultural output

